

Player and Parent Code of Conduct

The following is a statement of Zero Tolerance and violation implications:

Article 1. Player Conduct

Any violations will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis. Written notice on first violation will be enforced. Depending on the violation, the second infraction may result in season or lifetime ejection from the league. However, ejection on first violation may also occur. No refunds will be issue by the league if ejection is selected as action to the violation. Other ramifications may include game(s) suspension and/or physical exercise.

Section 1.01 No Arguing with Coaching Staff

Section 1.02 No Arguing with Players or Cheerleaders

Section 1.03 No foul language on or around practice or playing field

Section 1.04 No fighting or undesired physical contact of any kind. This includes horseplay, spitting and any other solicited or unsolicited acts of violence.

Section 1.05 All players are required to notify coaching staff regarding medical conditions and bring the proper medication with them to all practices and games.

Article 2. Parent/Fan Conduct

Any violations will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis. Written notice on first violation will be enforced. Depending on the violation, the second infraction may result in season or lifetime ejection from the league. However, ejection on first violation may also occur.
